

KILLED BY STAB IN DARKNESS OF HIS BEDROOM

Lombardi Fell Dead Across
Couch Where His Wife
Was Sleeping.

NO CLUE FOR POLICE.

Robbery Not the Motive, and
"Black Hand" Is Not Suspected.

A murder problem seemingly without a solution was furnished to-day in the death of Marino Lombardi, thirty-two, who was stabbed to death in his home at No. 210 Albany avenue, the Bronx. Lombardi got out of bed at midnight to visit the windows against the rain, and as he stepped out of his bedroom into the hallway a knife reached out in the darkness and pierced his heart.

The crime was committed in a two-story frame house, which was occupied by Lombardi, his wife, Jennie, his father, Ferdinand, his brother, Louis, and a boarder, John Limonero. All were in bed and the wife, asleep when the young man got up.

No sound was heard above the beating of the rain, said the widow to-day, when her husband stepped from the room in his bare feet. He did not cry out, nor was there any sound of snoring or snuffing. He simply uttered a feeble groan and staggered back into the room, supine, and died.

As he approached the bed he fell headlong across it, and the blood which was spurting from the wound over his heart warned the wife of what had happened.

Star screams awoke the household, and her husband's kinsmen rushed into the bedroom bearing lights. A policeman was called in and the house searched from cellar to garret. No trace of the assassin or weapon was found. An ambulance was pulling up in front of the house when the murdered man died.

Assistant District Attorney Joseph D. Vitar was called into the case by the police this morning, but after examining the wife and relatives of the slain man said that he could make nothing of the mystery. Lombardi had never had any dealings with or suffered any threats from the "black hand." He had no enemies known to him. The house had not been robbed, nor could the police determine how the assassin got in.

SHE SAILS AS MRS. FRENCH-VANDERBILT

Former Wife of Alfred G.
Goes Abroad With Many Relatives.

Mrs. Alfred G. Vanderbilt, who since she got her interlocutory decree of divorce calls herself Mrs. Elsie French-Vanderbilt, sailed to-day on the Kronprinz Wilhelm, of the North German Lloyd line. With her little son, William G. Vanderbilt; her mother, Mrs. F. O. French; her sister, Mrs. F. A. Wagstaff, and a retinue of servants, she occupied a suite of ten rooms on the ship.

"Please don't ask me to talk," said Mrs. French-Vanderbilt to the reporters, "I am going away to rest and to try to forget my family troubles. I hope the papers will forget them, too. I have no definite plans yet. We will probably go to Paris first. I don't know where I shall go from there."

Florence Ziegfeld, Jr., the producer, was aboard, on his way to join his wife, Anna Held, in Paris. A lot of the show ladies from "The Follies of 1907" were at the pier to bid him good-by, the party including Max McKenzie, Anna Held, Whitford, Lucy Weston, Grace La Rue and Miss Dazie. And they certainly did carry a lot of good wishes.

Laurence D'Orray, actor, he went, too.

OBJECT TO HOSPITAL.

Even the Churches in Exclusive
Greenpoint, L. I., Enter Protest.

The residential section of the exclusive colony of Greenpoint, L. I., has sent a petition to the Committee on the proposed hospital, which would be erected on the site of the abandoned gas works, protesting against the selection of a site in the vicinity for a charity hospital.

The churches in the neighborhood also join in the protest on the ground that the proposed hospital should be erected on the site of the abandoned gas works, which would disturb the meditations of the worshippers.

Public hearings will be granted to the petitioners and others interested.

UNSELFISHNESS.

"Don't you feel that the account was a waste of time and money?"

"Not a bit of it," replied the defeated candidate, whose defeat the account had emphasized.

"I made certain that you had been elected," he said.

Indisputable Evidence.

You have read our oft-repeated statement, "In use for over 30 years." It was in the early sixties that the prescription now universally known as Castoria was first made use of. With a record of over fifty, under five years of age, out of every hundred deaths, it was the AMBITION OF EVERY PHYSICIAN to discover a remedy suitable for the ailments of infants and children that would decrease this distressing mortality. In Castoria that relief has been found.

Let us take the statistics covering the deaths in the City of New York for the past 30 years, and here we find the beneficent effect of a combination of drugs excluding opiates and narcotics so long sought for, namely: CASTORIA.

Of the total number of deaths in New York City in 1870, 50 per cent, were under five years of age; in 1880, 46 per cent.; in 1890, 40 per cent.; in 1900, 35 per cent. only. Just stop to think of it.

Until 1897 no counterfeits or imitations of Castoria appeared on drug store shelves, but since that date Mr. Fletcher has been called upon to suppress a number of these brands. While the record for 1900 does not come down to our expectation it is owing to the carelessness of mothers when buying Castoria. The signature of Chas. H. Fletcher is the only safeguard.

AMBULANCE IS WRECKED.

Run Down in Front of Post-Office
by Madison Avenue Car.

An ambulance from St. Gregory's Hospital, driven by Edward Kennedy, was run down by a Madison Avenue car in front of the Post-Office on Park Row to-day and wrecked. The driver and Dr. Higginbotham escaped unhurt.

Dr. Higginbotham proceeded on foot to Coenties Slip and cared for a man who had been taken suddenly ill. When Kennedy was returning to the hospital with the wrecked ambulance, the vehicle fell apart at the corner of Jacob and Ferry streets, and he was thrown to the pavement, but only slightly bruised.

PARKER PRAISES PLATFORM.

BILLINGS, Mont., July 14.—Judge Alton B. Parker, of New York, is en route to-day to Helena from Denver and will be the guest of T. J. Walsh for two days. He will then ride through Yellowstone Park on horseback. Discussing the political situation he said that the Democratic platform was strong and that the candidates were acceptable to him.

There are certain mineral medicines which will remove the external symptoms of Contagious Blood Poison, and shut the disease up in the system for awhile, but when the treatment is left off the disease will surely return. Then the loathsome symptoms of ulcerated mouth and throat, copper-colored spots, falling hair, sores and ulcers, are usually worse because the disease has made rapid progress on the internal members, and weakened the constitution and general health of the sufferer. S. S. S. is the only remedy that can be used with perfect safety in the treatment of Contagious Blood Poison, and with the assurance that a lasting cure will result. This medicine, made of roots and herbs of recognized curative and tonic value, antiseptics and destroys the powerful virus of the disease, and by purifying the blood of every particle of the poison and enriching and strengthening the circulation, removes every symptom of the trouble. S. S. S. does not hide or cover up the disease in any way, but drives it entirely out from the blood, leaving not the slightest trace for future outbreaks.
